

Standing Committee for Youth Justice

APPLICATION TO BECOME AN ASSOCIATE MEMBER OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE FOR YOUTH JUSTICE

The Standing Committee for Youth Justice is a coalition of organisations who campaign and lobby on issues relating to children in trouble with the law in England and Wales. Individuals can apply to become an Associate Member of SCYJ if they are actively engaged in the youth justice system or have knowledge of the issues affecting young people who offend or are risk of offending. They must also subscribe to the values and constitution of SCYJ and be able to offer knowledge or skills that are of particular value to the committee at any given time
